Director's	hearings before the House of Delegates and State Senate. Both committees were supportive of the work
Report	MCCR does.
	2. Commissioner Reception in Annapolis in February. We were very pleased with the attendance, especially from the number of legislators who were able to join MCCR during the busy legislative session.
	3. MAHRA's annual Human Rights Day in Annapolis was a huge success with over 100 individuals in attendance. This included approximately 15 legislators who were able to join us during the program.
	4. Executive Director thanks Deputy Director, General Counsel, Education & Outreach Director, and Executive Associate for their continued diligence with getting the Western Maryland Advisory Council pilot program up and running. Had a successful preliminary call with leaders in the region. Follow-up outreach to leaders, as well as outreach for general information session to the public planned in the coming month.
	5. MCCR is partnering with the University of Maryland School of Law to host a May symposium on the impact medical cannabis laws have on the workplace in Maryland.
	6. MCCR hosted a Delegation from the Philippines last week who are interested in the work of MCCR, and how that work can be brought to their home country.
	7. Leaders from Southern Maryland remain in contact with MCCR to further explore and discuss how we can collaborate to promote and improve civil rights in Maryland.
Deputy	1. Reviewed submitted written report.	None.
